Dear Mr. Smith;

Your appeal record has been certified with the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals and a copy of the appeal record is enclosed (this is envelope 1 of 7). This record is strictly for the purpose of working on your briefs to the Fifth Circuit for the captioned appeal.

As this is a voluminous record (3,216 pages), it being transmitted to you in seven individual mailings. The envelopes will be clearly marked.

This record includes the following documents:

- Public Documents
- Public Hearing Exhibits
- Pre-Sentence Investigation Report (initial and final)
- Transcript
- Statement of Reason

The court notes that your appeal record also contains video exhibits from the Docket Call and Pending Motions Hearing on September 10, 2021. As I am unable to send you a DVD or flash drive, I have spoke with your standby counsel, Mr. Lynch, and he has assured me that he will discuss gaining access, if you need it, with you.

Upon completion of your appeal, this record should be destroyed.

Sincerely,

/s/
